

CEDAW

CEDAW's Role in Advancing Women's Rights Worldwide – 30 Years of Success & Setbacks

Please join the Center for Human Rights and Global Justice, Law Students for Human Rights, International Law Society, the Middle Eastern Law Students Association, and NYU Law Women, as well as the International Women's Rights Committee of the New York State Bar Association International Section, in a reception and panel discussion on the 30th anniversary of the UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women.

About the Panelists:

Gaynel Curry, Gender and Human Rights Officer, United Nations Office for the High Commissioner for Human Rights

Karen Stefiszyn, Human Rights Specialist, United Nations Development Fund for Women

Janet Benshoof, President, Global Justice Center

Moderated by Jayne Huckerby, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Clinical Law and Research Director, CHR&GJ, New York University School of Law

Faculty Club, D'Agostino Hall

(108 West 3rd Street)

March 30, 2010, 6.00-8.00 PM

Space is limited. Please RSVP to Kelly Ryan at ryank@exchange.law.nyu.edu to be guaranteed entrance to the event. Event to be preceded by brief reception.