

presents

Experiments in Social Isolation:
Communications Management Units and the Expansion of Unconstitutional Detention Policies in the Post-9/11 Federal Prison System.

WHAT: “Experiments in Social Isolation” Panel on Communications Management Units

WHERE: The Unitarian Community Church of New York City (Assembly Hall) – 40 East 35th Street (6-train to 33rd Street, BDFMNQR-trains to 34th Street)

WHEN: Thursday, November 11, 2010. 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 pm

WHO: Jenny Synan and Noor Elashi, family members of CMU prisoner; and Alexis Agathocleous, Rachel Meeropol and Nahal Zamani from the Center for Constitutional Rights. The event will be moderated by Suzanne Adely of DRUM.

***This event is FREE and open to the public*****

Sponsored by: The Center for Constitutional Rights, South Asian Americans Leading Together; The Arab American Association of New York; Support Daniel McGowan; CUNY Law School National Lawyers Guild Chapter; Brooklyn Law School’s Student Animal Legal Defense Fund; the Center for Human Rights and Global Justice at NYU; NY Chapter of the American Immigration Lawyers Association, and the National Lawyers Guild- NYC Chapter.