

Transitional Justice and Bank Liability: Current Developments in re South Africa Apartheid Litigation

Please join the CHR&GJ in welcoming Dr. Sabine Michalowski in a discussion about bank liability for human rights violations and the current status of this aspect of corporate accountability given recent developments in the re South Africa Apartheid Litigation. In her talk, Dr. Michalowski will analyze the consequences of the most recent decision in this case in regard to pursuing accountability for financial institutions who lend to countries where human rights violations are known to be taking place.

About our Speaker:

Dr. Sabine Michalowski is Reader in Law at the University of Essex and a staff member of its Human Rights Centre

Discussion moderated by Veerle Opgenhaffen, CHR&GJ Senior Program Director

Furman Hall, Room 316 (245 Sullivan St.)
Tuesday, March 2, 2010, 1:00-2:30 PM

Space is limited and lunch will be served. Please RSVP to Kelly Ryan at ryank@exchange.law.nyu.edu to be guaranteed entrance to the event.