

“Rebuilding Haiti: The Challenges Ahead”

Please join the CHR&GJ and a coalition of law student groups in welcoming William O’Neill, Program Director for the Conflict Prevention and Peace Forum at the Social Science Research Council. Mr. O’Neill will discuss his recent work in Haiti and assess both the short and long-term challenges of rebuilding Haiti in a sustainable, rights-based way.

CHR&GJ’s Fellow, Liz Sepper, will moderate the discussion. She has been leading the Center’s work on the Right to Food in Haiti since August 2009.

The event is co-sponsored by the following student groups: African Law Association (ALA), Coalition for Legal Recruiting (CoLR), Latino Law Student Association (LaLSA), Law Students for Economic Justice (LawSEJ), Law Students for Human Rights (LSHR), and the National Lawyers Guild (NLG).

About our Speaker

William O’Neill is a lawyer specializing in humanitarian, human rights and refugee law. He was Senior Advisor on Human Rights in the UN Mission in Kosovo, Chief of the UN Human Rights Field Operation in Rwanda and led the Legal Department of the UN/OAS Mission in Haiti.
