

0000043

~~TOP SECRET~~ / [redacted] 20300202

[redacted]
[redacted]

02/02/05 01:38 PM

To: John A. Rizzo/STF/AGENCY@DCI

cc: [redacted]

Subject: Re: Draft OLC opinion on combined techniques has arrived

Agree this should be limited to lawyers. I thought, though, that perhaps [redacted] was EIT briefed. The expert, of course, is [redacted].
Original Text of John A. Rizzo@DCI

[redacted]

John A. Rizzo@DCI
OGC

02/02/05 01:26 PM

To: [redacted]
cc: [redacted]

Subject: Re: Draft OLC opinion on combined techniques has arrived

Who are "a few others" at DOD? [redacted] cleared into EITs, and perhaps [redacted] (check on this) but no one else in DOD OGC, as far as I know. Outside of lawyers, I don't see this is any of anyone else's business on the DOD policy side.

Original Text of [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

02/02/05 12:58 PM

To: John A. Rizzo/STF/AGENCY@DCI

cc: [redacted]

Subject: Draft OLC opinion on combined techniques has arrived

~~TOP SECRET~~ / [REDACTED] / 20300202

OLC wants our comments ASAP (if we have any hopes of having it completed and signed by COB Friday).

OLC also asks if its OK to share this draft opinion with appropriately cleared DOD (Jim Haynes, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] and a few others) and State attorneys (currently only two, Will Taft and now also John Bellinger).

~~TOP SECRET~~ / [REDACTED] / 20300202